

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

STAFFORD, REGINALD ALVIN '51 "Al"

Reginald "Al" Stafford, 77, passed away on 18 August 2008 in Hampton, VA.. He retired from the Newport News Shipyard and Drydock Company as a Steel Fabrication Specialist after a career of 42 years.

Al graduated from Warwick High School in 1950, had a year of postgraduate work at Augusta, and served two years in Germany with the Army. He was a member of Liberty Baptist Church.

His interest in music led him to teach himself to play the organ. He was fond of nature walks at the nearby Mariners' Museum with his twin brother, Bob.

He is survived by daughter, grandchildren, siblings, and nieces and nephews. He was interred at Parklawn Memorial Park.

At Augusta for one year, Stafford was a member of HQ Company and played Varsity Football, Basketball, and Baseball.
