

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

---

STALLINGS, WALTON DEES '32

Died 8 March 2005 at the Virginia Beach General Hospital after a period of declining health, aged 90.

Owner of 4C Candy Company in Suffolk with homes in Suffolk, the Virgin Islands and Marathon, FL. He was an avid swimmer, scuba diver and fisherman and a founder of the Sandbridge Gill Net Society.

A US Marine Corps veteran of World War II serving in the Pacific Theater, he was an Eagle Scout, a graduate of Augusta Military Academy, and attended The College of William and Mary, where he was a member of SAE fraternity and the basketball team.

Survived by his son, W. Dees Stallings of Annapolis, MD.

At Augusta for one year: Varsity Basketball, Track, company boxing, Tiger Baseball, Booster's Club.

(2005 Summer Bayonet)