

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

STEPHENSON, LUCIUS H. '39

5 October 2009, University of Virginia Medical Center, 90. He was Linda Roller Livick's cousin and the new AMA Museum Administrator Crysta Stephenson's great uncle.

Luke served in the Army during World War II, after which he stayed in the USAR for 33 years. He attended Davis and Elkins College and received his law degree from the University of Richmond. He was an attorney for the Veterans Administration for 26 years. He also held a pilot's license before the war and tested new aircraft, ferried and taught air cadets. Member, Society of the Cincinnati.

Luke appeared in THE AMA WAY, the video presentation detailing life at AMA. Just after the war, he had a famous boxing match with Max Schmeling, the World Heavyweight Champion in the early 1930's until dethroned by Joe Louis.

Survived by his wife of 42 years, Blanca P. Stephenson of Monterey; a daughter; two sons; a sister; a brother; three step-sons; ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

At AMA two years: Drum Major, Boxing and Track Teams, Monogram Club.
