

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

STUART, WILLIAM CLARKSON III, '44

Died 7 December 2012 in Rockville, MD, aged 86.

Stuart began his career as a real estate developer in Washington, DC, forming in 1956 the firm Stuart and Maury focusing primarily on residential real estate. In the 1950s, he sold then Vice President Nixon a home. Past President, D.C. Association of Realtors. Realtor of the Year, 1974. Director of the National Association of Realtors and the Greater Washington Board of Trade.

Survived by his wife of 62 years, Patricia, of Silver Spring, MD; four children, nine grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

At Augusta four years: Vice President, Student Body; Captain, B Company; Honor Committee; YMCA Board; Best Officer of the Day; Politest cadet; fencing, tennis, Recall Staff, Ad Astra per Aspera.

(Reported by Jim Starnes, '50.)

(2013 Winter Bayonet)