

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

TOWE, JAMES PENROD '60

Died of cancer 23 October 2006, at home in Earlysville, VA, aged 65.

Graduated from AMA in 1959 and came back for a post graduate year before attending Randolph-Macon College in Ashland. Worked for Phoenix of London Insurance Group in New York and Atlanta before moving to Charlottesville in 1966 to join the insurance firm owned by his father and his brother.

Charter member, Seminole Trail Volunteer Fire Department. 32nd degree Mason, Shriner. Member, Virginia Blood Services Society of 100 honoring those who have donated at least 100 pints of blood. Past President, Professional Insurance Agents of Virginia. Jaycees, exhausted rooster. Exchange Club.

Survived by Susan, his wife of 42 years; a son, James, of Birmingham, AL; a daughter and his business associate, Beth Towe Heck of Earlysville, and two granddaughters, Anna and Ava Heck.

At Augusta four years: Battalion adjutant; Vice President of the Honor Committee; President of the Cotillion Club; fencing; lacrosse; Ad Astra per Aspera.

(2007 Winter Bayonet)