Walter was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on June 2, 1932, the son of Walter E. and Ruby A. Jerichow. He attended Augusta Military Academy in Fort Defiance, Virginia, where he met his future bride at a formal dance. He married Nancy Chase on October 24, 1953. Jerry worked at General Motors as an Assistant Superintendent at Buick City, Factory 10 and Final Assembly for 34 years. Anyone who knew our father was touched by his kindness, sense of humor, stories and generosity. He will always be the wind beneath our wings and will be forever missed.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 57 years, Nancy. Jerry is survived by his four children, Deborah Anderson of Warren, James and wife Diane Jerichow of Flushing, Kathryn and husband Salvatore Angotti of Fenton, and Robert and wife Dawn Jerichow of Iron River; eight grandchildren, Chad and Matthew Anderson, Kyle and wife Kamila, Kristin and husband James Cocke, Danielle and husband Tony Everett, Jessica Miller, Alexandria Jerichow, Jennifer and husband Kevin Negrete; his beloved cat “Buddy”; and many dear friends.

From the AMA 1949 Recall: “Probably the most efficient officer in the cadet corps. His Academics are of the highest. Quiet, but his presence is felt in the many ways that he does things to make this past year’s corps the fine one it was.” Walt was 1st Lt. “B” Company, Platoon Leader.
