

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

WELLS, WALTER RALEIGH '48

Died 22 August 2013 in Mathews, VA. He was a graduate of the Richmond Professional Institute and the College of William and Mary.

He left college with teaching certification and taught in the public schools as a band director. He later entered the accounting field from which he retired in 2006.

Survived by four daughters; a son; a sister; and four grandchildren.

At AMA one year: Private, Headquarters Company; music study.

(2013 Fall Bayonet)