

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

WHITE, WARREN CARL JR., '55

Died 23 November 2006, in Jacksonville, FL. Served in the US Navy as a Corpsman. Attended the University of Florida.

Originally from Cumberland, MD, he moved to Jacksonville where he opened a music and band instrument store which he ran for 35 years. He was a drummer in many bands along the East Coast, including Touch of Class, his last band.

He was an avid Florida football fan and member of the Jacksonville Jaguar Booster Club.

Survived by his daughters, Kim White, of Jacksonville, Misty White, of Atlantic Beach, FL, Carla White, of Coles Point, VA, and Christiana White, of Jacksonville; three grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

At AMA two years: A Company; swimming team; Decorating Committee.

(Reported by his roommate Nick Crump, '56.)

(2007 Winter Bayonet)