

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

---

WHITING, LEWIS BUTLER JR., '58

Died 8 January 2014 of lung cancer at West Virginia University Medical Center, Morgantown. He was 73.

Whiting was a graduate of Baltimore Community College and the Law Enforcement Academy of Palm Beach County, FL. He owned a cattle company in the 1980s and was President of Young Cattleman's Association of York County, PA. He served as the administrator, Department of Radiology, University of Maryland, St. Joseph Medical Center.

In 1984 he moved to Palm Beach where he owned and operated the L. B. Whiting Company, a marine salvage company. He later served as Captain of the Lantana, FL, Police Department's Marine Unit. He was a member of Greenbrier, WV, Sporting Club and Baltimore Country Club.

Whiting is survived by his wife, Janice; two sons; a stepson; a stepdaughter; and nine grandchildren.

At AMA one year: Private, A Company.

Reported by Jorge Roviroso, 70.

(2014 Winter Bayonet)