

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

ZEHMER, CHARLES BOURDON JR. '59 "ZEKE"

Charles Bourdon "Zeke" Zehmer Jr. died 18 February 2008 at DePaul Hospital in Norfolk after a long illness.

Born in Hampton on 24 May 1939, he grew up in Hilton Village in Newport News. He is predeceased by his father, Charles Bourdon Zehmer Sr., and his mother, Mary Prince Zehmer.

He attended Warwick High School and later graduated from Augusta Military Academy. A member of the Ad Astra per Aspera Society, he cherished his time at AMA. After graduating from the Newport News Apprentice School, he became a real estate broker and property manager working for various agencies throughout Hampton Roads.

He retired from Long & Foster Real Estate Company in 1995. He loved his children and grandchildren and was an avid sports fan. He derived much pleasure from attending his grandson's baseball and basketball games.

He is survived by Anabel Beatty of Norfolk and her daughters, Lynn Killmon and Anne Beatty, and their children, Christopher Killmon and Mayson Driscoll; his daughter, Cary Zehmer Kelly, son-in-law, Timothy Lee Kelly, and grandson, Timothy Cary Kelly of Hampton; son, Charles Bourdon Zehmer III of Tampa, Fla.; and brothers, Thomas Lee Zehmer of Gloucester and John Adrian McClure Zehmer of Newport News.

A memorial service and garden interment was held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Newport News. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Augusta Military Academy Alumni Association, P.O. Box 101, Fort Defiance, VA 24437-0101.

At Augusta three years: Captain, D Company; Best New Cadet; Ad Astra per Aspera; YMCA; lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and wrestling, Captain of Tennis Team; Honor Committee; Student Body Officer; Roller Rifles; Recall, Scholastic Medal at Camp Kannata.
