Thomas R. Del Valle is the President and CEO of Anvry Solutions LLC. Since 2014, Tom has been the lead consultant and facilitator of Anvry. In keeping with Anvry's company standards, relations are built and maintained within the airline industry across the globe to better understand the needs of various airlines and their equipment/service providers. Tom has exemplified his reputation one client at a time with a strong degree of trust, credibility and unwavering integrity. With more than 43 years' experience, Tom is recognized as a top aviation industry veteran and leading expert in the U.S.

Prior to his ongoing success with Anvry, Tom was previously the President of G2 Secure Staff LLC. G2 provides a wide range of aviation staffing and security solutions, including terminal, security, aircraft appearance, ramp, passenger service, cargo and maintenance services.

The majority of Tom's longstanding and successful career was held at American Airlines with 38 years of dedicated leadership. In 2007, Tom was appointed Senior Vice President – Airport Services. He oversaw all American Airlines' airport operations, customer service planning as well as the cargo division. Prior to that Tom served as Vice President of Customer Services at American Airlines from 1999 to 2007, responsible for all non-hub stations in the U.S. and Canada.

Tom began his career as a flight attendant for American Airlines based in Chicago and subsequently held a number of management positions in both flight services and passenger services. In 1989, he joined the international division as General Manager in Brussels, Belgium, which led him to the role of President of American Eagle's Executive Airlines operation in San Juan, Puerto Rico, in 1992. Tom was then appointed Managing Director – Customer Services for American Airlines in Los Angeles.

Tom was born in the United States and raised in Central and South America and is fluent in Spanish. He attended Augusta Military Academy in Ft Defiance, VA for six years and graduated as a cadet Captain in 1973. After graduating from AMA he went on to Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, NC to study business.

Over the past ten years, he has been a proud member of the USO Board of Governors. For 75 years, the USO has been the nation's leading organization to serve the men and women in the U.S. military, and their families. Tom serves on the AMA Foundation today, and is seeking re-election
